Re: United States v. Sylvia Ash, 19 Cr. 780 (LAK)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

We respectfully submit this letter on behalf of defendant Sylvia Ash in connection with the above-referenced matter. We hereby request a modification of the deadline for Ms. Ash to make final payment of the fine imposed by the Court, which is due on May 1, 2023. We request that she be permitted to pay the remainder in installments between now and August 1, 2023. We make this request with the consent of the government.

Ms. Ash is currently incarcerated at FPC Anderson in West Virginia, with a release date of June 20, 2023. Despite her incarceration, she has stayed current on her fine payments and, as of this week, has paid $5,000 of her final $35,000 payment due May 1. The funds for this payment came from selling certain personal property. However, to make up the difference, Ms. Ash had hoped to sell real property she jointly owns with her siblings. This property was put on the market in August 2022, but the sale did not proceed, and the property was taken off the market by her siblings in January. Ms. Ash will be in a far better position to liquidate assets and make funds available when she is out of custody. Accordingly, we respectfully request that she be permitted to pay the remaining balance of $30,000 as follows: $5,000 to be paid June 1, 2023; $10,000 to be paid July 1, 2023; and the final $15,000 to be paid August 1, 2023.
